A FOUL MURDER.

Well Known Citizen Shot and Mortally Wounded by a Negro-The Criminal Flees, but is Pursued by Mounted Men.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. V. H. Swift, a prominent planter and highly respected citizen, living near Colliersville, in this county, was shot and fatally wounded by a negro man whose name we could not learn. He lived on the plantation of Mr. Swift. The particulars, as near as we could learn, are as follows; Late Tuesday Mr. Swift saw two wagons drive up to the home of the negro man, who did the shooting, and walked brough the field to where the vehicles were eing loaded with furniture, bedding, etc. Mr. Swift inquired what they intended doing, when the negro villain replied in a very insulting manner, that he was going to leave the place. Mr. Swift began to remonstrate with him, telling him that he ought not to leave his crop at this time, just when he was most needed. This enraged the black vil-lain to such an extent that he raised a doublebarreled shot-gun from the wagon he was oading, and taking aim at Mr. Swift, fired the contents, a heavy charge of buck-shot, striking him in the lower part of the body. The assassin immediately fled, leaving his victim, mortally wounded, on the ground. The news of the shooting spread with great rapidity over the vicinity, and in a few hours a large number of armed men on horses were searching the woods and fields for the black brute, but up to this writing have not succeeded in capturing him. Should he be captured by the people, the probabilities arehe will not only pull hemp, but will be riddled with a thousand bullets. Much excitement prevails at Collierville in regard to the affair, as Mr. Swift is well known and highly esteemed by all classes of -people in the community.

Pondy & Teamas, Bolivar county, Mississippi. Last year the first bloom was received June 14th, by Harris, Mallory & Co., from Joseph Wells, colored, Edmonday, Edmonday, June 18th, on the worthy president, Brother Maurelian, who, with his corps of professors, has been, and is yet an incessant worker. As the head and manager of the above-named institution, & Co., from Joseph Wells, colored, Edmon-son, Crittenden county, Arkansas; the next Brother Maurelian is entitled to the respect and esteem of the community, for no one contributes more largely to its improvement and welfare, in an educational sense. We were glad to see such an audience present last night, and to note the deep interest manifested the exercises, which were gracefully conducted sissippi, on June 18th.

Lee, Waverly, and De la Salle. Among the young gentlemen who received honors last night was Mr. Raphael E. Semmes, of this city. The degree of "Master of Arts" was conferred upon Mr. Semmes, who was graduated by this institution two years ago, ince which time he has devoted himself to the study of the law, and bids fair to take a high position in this profession. Mr. Semmes is a young man of excellent literary attainments, a hard student and logical reasoner. His oration last night, "Philosophy of Poetry," was a grand production, creditable to his scholarly accomplishments and to his talent as a speaker. Mr. David a Frayser, son of our well-known citizen, Dr. John R. Frayser, having completed the full collegiate ourse and mastered every study, as his strict examination showed, received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. His oration upon "Ancient Egyptians" was learned, compre-hensive and accurate. The oration was listened to with great attention, and did honor to its author, who is a good student and a young man of bright talent. The degree of "Master of Accounts" was conferred upon Messrs. James F. Curtis, of Pass Christian, Mississippi; William E. Frawley, of Mason's Depot, Tennessee; William King, of New Orleans, Louisiana, and Joseph B. Murphy, of Canton, Mississippi. These gentlemen, before receiving the degree of "Master of Accounts," were subjected to rigid and-comprehensive examinations as to their qualifications as accountants. In these examinations they left no doubt as to their practical ability as accountants. After the valedictory, by David A. Frayser, the graduates were addressed by Hon. Casey Young, the able representative in congress from this district. Colonel Young's address was one of the most elegant and appropriate ever made upon such an occasion, it being the happiest and most graceful effort he has yet made-chaste, brilexquisite conception, able > COTTON TIES. Iron Cotton-Ties-Important Special Notice. IN view of the constant'y increasing popularity and demand for the Celebrated Arrow-Tie demand for the Celebrated Arrow-Tle, the universally recognized favorite Tie of planters, cotton-pressmen and shippers of cotton generally the American Cotton-Tie Co. Limited, sole proprietors and manufacturers of said Tle, commanding unequaled facilities, bave, in addition to their large stock now on hand, contracted for increased quantities, sufficient to meet the largest demand for Cotton-ties to cover the entire crop of the coming season, and now, through their agents generally, offer the popular and frepressible Arrow-Tle at $2.50 per bundle, less 21s per cent discount for cash. In bundles compute, being less than the market value of plain hoop iron; and it being the purpose of the company to merit the continued patronage of the planting community, and defy all competition that may arise, their agents are in structed to contract with dealers, factors and country mercuants, at the above-named price and terms for future delivery, up to the 1st August in quantities as may be required from time to time, seitlements being made on delivery.
